Dear Dr. Kouriatchev:

I presently represent the United States-Newly Independent States Chamber of Commerce and Industry ("US-NIS").

The Chamber promotes trade and investment between the United States and the newly independent states of the former Soviet Union and is the only not-for-profit organization to serve the business needs of the 12 sovereign states that comprise the NIS. The Chamber offers cost-effective approaches to serving the requirements of business/industry, government and academia; identifying opportunities and developing profitable markets in the NIS and US.

While in Moscow, I am looking for Russian enterprises, associations, government agencies, academic institutions and individuals who may profit from joining the Chamber. Since you represent the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Russian Federation, perhaps some form of mutual cooperation could be worked out between the two chambers. If you would refer me to a contact for your chamber in Moscow, he and I may be able to work out some way by which the members of both chambers may benefit.

Thank you for your time.

Best regards

Roy Den Hollander, Esq.
